UPDATE FROM THE IB POA BOARD

We welcome the snow to the Valley! Could this be the real beginning of winter? Get out there and enjoy all the activities that we love about the Roaring Fork. Here are some updates from your Executive Board:

- Landscaping: The Board listened to your comments during the Annual Meeting of the Members: improve path maintenance, remove dead trees, add new trees, and beautify the property. We're compiling a new Scope of Work and RFPs will go out by the end of February for a new landscape vendor. The five categories proposed are Irrigation, Regular Maintenance, Weed Mitigation, Tree Maintenance, and Beautification. The Board hopes to appoint a Beautification Committee to address non-maintenance projects. Contact property management if you're interested in serving on this committee.
- Bylaws Revisions: This has been a long and complex process; we thank the Governing Docs Committee for all their hard work. Because the Declarations trump the Bylaws, the Board has concentrated on conflicts between the documents, as well as the consequences of setting new precedents. The Board discussed the Gov Docs Committee and attorneys' suggestions and comments have been sent back to the attorneys. We urge you to be patient with us as we navigate a new territory. Our Bylaws haven't been updated since 2006.
- Transfer Fee Survey: Check your email in mid-February for a survey about the proposed Transfer Fee Amendment to the Declarations. We plan to use Survey Monkey, a quick and easy platform. We must gauge neighborhood interest before the process becomes costly. We strongly encourage members to respond to the survey.
- Mailbox display case: The display case at the mailboxes will be updated and used for future communications. At this time, the Board hasn't established who and what can be displayed besides official information. It is not likely to be used for personal advertisements.
- Snow Removal: The Board is working out the kinks of managing our new vendor, Good Earth. There were several complaints after the major snowfall in mid-January. The Board originally set a trigger level at 3" on roads and 2" on pathways. As Ironbridge is one of the first locations they check (between 6-8 am), the trigger level often hasn't been reached. The Board discussed it at length with property management and decided to drop the trigger level to 2" on the roads.

Have a wonderful Leap Year month!

Monthly Executive Board meetings are held on the third Monday at 5:00 pm and may vary between Zoom and in-person meetings at The Kitchen. All members are welcome to attend.

MEET YOUR NEW NEIGHBORS

Robert & Regina de Wetter

Robert de Wetter, originally from El Paso, Texas, spent most of his growing-up years in Los Angeles. Regina de Wetter, a Los Angeles native, runs a scholarship program for Jefferies and Company.

Their 3 children, Elizabeth, Catherine, and Peter, spent time in New Hampshire and New York and most of their lives in Snowmass Village attending the Aspen schools. Elizabeth graduated from the University of the South in 2023 and now works at the Basalt Library. Catherine graduated from CU Boulder and is a first-grade teacher in Denver. Peter attends the University of Florida, Miami.

The de Wetters are avid readers of history and fiction, love all kinds of food and music, and enjoy traveling to many areas around the world. They love to play golf, pickleball, tennis, and fly fishing. The location, the river, the golf course and the sense of community are what drew them to Ironbridge.

Welcome to Ironbridge Robert and Regina!

FEATURED LOCAL BUSINESS

EPIC SYSTEMS

Ari Chopra

Epic Systems Ltd

970-456-1882

Our neighbor, Ari Chopra, is the founder and sole proprietor of Epic Systems Ltd., a Smart Home system integration and installation business. Ari installs and programs home theaters, media rooms, whole home audio, lighting systems, motorized shades, cameras, wifi networks, and more. Ari does all of the work himself. His high level of personal experience and great attention to detail ensure quality work not typically found with other similar businesses. Thanks to Ari's 15 years of computer software and consulting experience, he can easily help solve clients' needs with a consultative and personalized approach. Ari prides himself on maintaining long-term client relationships and quick response times when contacted for system support and new add-on projects.

Ari started Epic Systems here at Ironbridge in 2014. At first Epic Systems was a side "hustle" while Ari maintained a full-time job as a Solutions Consultant for an East Coast-based software company. Eventually, Ari decided that he would be happier working for himself rather than continuing to climb the corporate ladder and decided to focus on Epic Systems full-time. His experience has proven to be very rewarding and fulfilling, allowing him to work on his terms and providing more flexibility in his daily life.

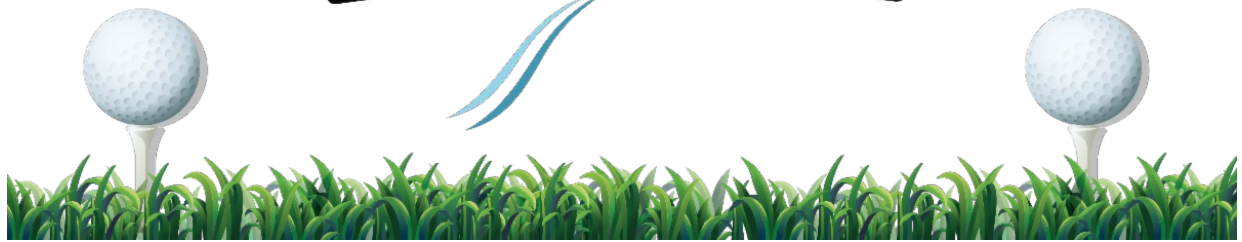

Not only is Ari actively involved in raising his two children, but is also the Head Coach and a founding member of the 12u Girls Glenwood Grizzlies hockey team. Ari is an avid hockey player himself and has participated in the "Over 40" Men's league in Glenwood as well as the Aspen Men's Hockey League as a member of Zane's Tavern team for the past 16 years.

Ari has installed smart home systems in over 20 of the homes within the Ironbridge community and neighboring areas, with many highly referenceable neighbors to show for it! Ari is always looking to help out, so do not hesitate to contact him with any questions about how to "smarten" your home, or how technical things work, or even to talk about hockey, fantasy football, or whatever else is on your mind ;)

The IPOA Engagement and Communications Committee would like to feature your business! Please email communications@ironbridgepoa.com if you would like to be considered. Limited to businesses located in the Roaring Fork Valley and owned by current Ironbridge residents. Thank you!

"Connecting Our Community With Every Home"

As we conclude the first month of 2024, Ironbridge and Glenwood Springs' real estate markets reflect the seasonal quiet that often characterizes the Colorado winter months. However, beneath this calm surface, there are currents of activity that signal both opportunities and a steady interest in our beautiful communities. Let's delve into the current market offerings.

Ironbridge Current Market Dynamics

While Ironbridge has not seen sales finalized in the early days of this year, the market is anything but dormant. Three homes are currently under contract, with an average asking price indicative of Ironbridge's premium value—$1.04 million at $480 per square foot. This includes two existing homes and a new construction on Blue Heron Drive, showcasing a blend of established charm and modern appeal.

Glenwood Springs Market Highlights

In Glenwood Springs, the market is tight with a reduced inventory—yet the demand remains, as evidenced by the steady list prices. An increase in the average days on the market suggests a more deliberate pace of sales, aligning with the seasonal lull.

Trends in Year-Over-Year Sales Comparisons

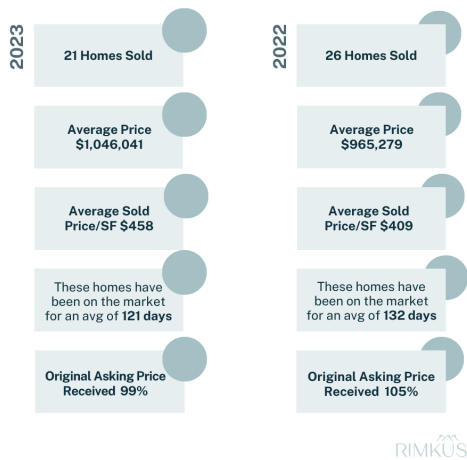

As you peruse the sales comparison graphs, a clear trend emerges from the 2023 data relative to 2022. In both Ironbridge and Glenwood Springs, there has been a noticeable shift in the real estate landscape.

For Glenwood Springs, the total number of homes sold has decreased, with 190 homes sold in 2023 compared to 259 in 2022. Despite this reduction in volume, the average sale price and price per square foot have both risen. This suggests a market where, although fewer transactions occurred, the value of the property has appreciated, indicating a strong demand for quality homes in the area.

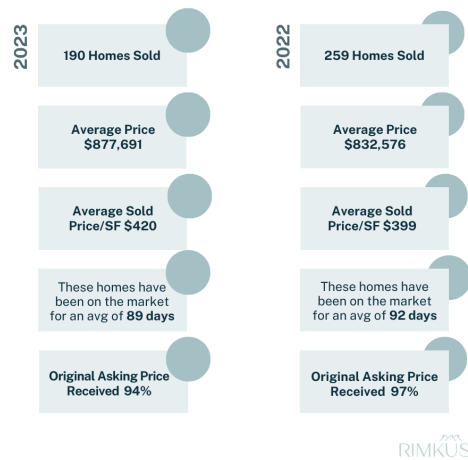

Ironbridge reflects a similar pattern, with 21 homes sold in 2023, down from 26 in the previous year. 15 existing homes found their new owners each year. The average sale price saw a significant increase, alongside a rise in the average price per square foot. Moreover, homes in Ironbridge are moving faster, with a decrease in the average days on the market. This trend highlights a competitive market for buyers where properties, particularly those that hit the sweet spot in pricing and features, are highly sought after. These trends point towards a dynamic market environment, where strategic pricing and understanding market timing are crucial. For sellers, these insights could inform when to enter the market, and for buyers, they underscore the need for readiness and decisiveness in making offers.

|                    | Current | STLY '23 | % Change |
